5. Morning · PHOTO POST (Chris smiling in the white shirt) — attach your grocery receipt or cart too if you want

Yall seen these grocery prices?? 😩😩😩 If you're tired of paying more for less... vote Chris Jones, not French Hill. Chris is running on lowering costs for regular Arkansans. Early voting is open thru Monday.

6. Midday · STATUS

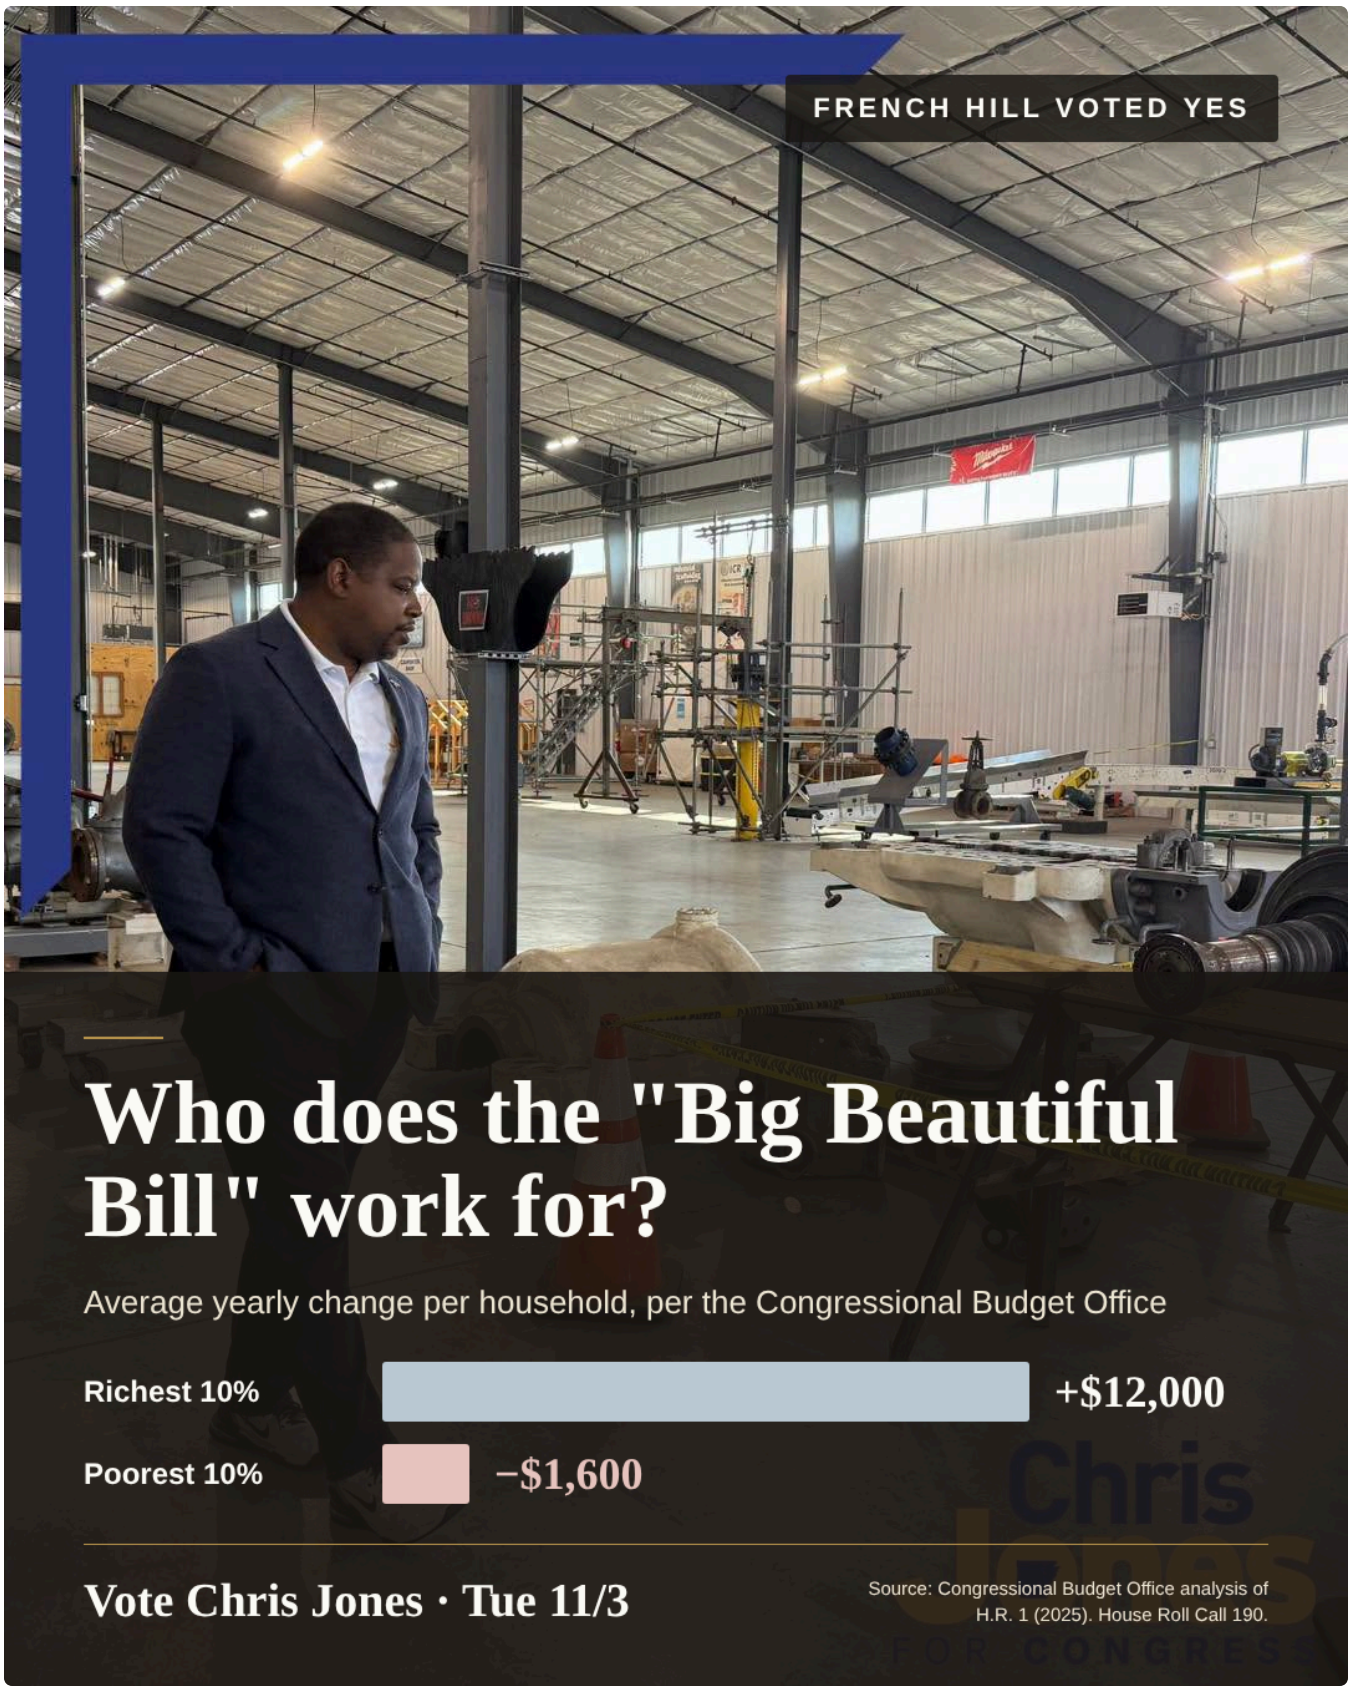

Stressed about gas? Light bill went up again? ... yall I feel it too. If you want somebody in Congress who's actually focused on the cost of living, Chris Jones is that guy. Vote 11/3 & pass this on.

Arkansas leads the whole country in rice & our farmers are hurting... the Ag Council said 1 in 3 farms in our state could close, and farmer suicide rates run 2 to 5 times the national average. These are our neighbors. Our farmers need somebody fighting for them in DC. Vote Chris Jones.

If you or a farmer you love is struggling, call or text 988 or the AgriStress line at 1-833-897-2474.

10. Midday · STATUS

Our troops are in a war Congress never voted on… the president just started it. That's supposed to be Congress's call. And French Hill? He hasn't pushed back. He stands with the president every time instead of standing up for Arkansas military families. If you're tired of the war… vote Chris Jones on 11/3.

11. Afternoon · STATUS

Let me say this… when they can't beat you on the issues, they come after your paperwork. The Arkansas GOP filed complaints because Chris turned in a financial form late. It got delayed after a close friend of his passed. He paid the late fee & filed it. Don't fall for the distraction… look at French Hill's record. Vote Chris.

12. Evening · GRAPHIC POST (Sunday graphic: too close to sit out)

48 to 44… that's how close this race is, and the margin of error is bigger than the gap. Every single vote matters. Repost this & make your plan to vote.

Too close to sit out.

Chris Jones		48%
French Hill		44%

The margin of error is ±5.3 points. This comes down to who shows up.
